VOL. 14, NUMBER 66 MONESSEN, PA, MONDAY, AUGUST 30, 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

Heavy Traffic On Riverside Road Yesterday Afternoon

The men who toil in the mills and mines of this valley can now come in to a full realization of the importance of civic working bodies such as the Monessen Board of Trade. It has taken years to bring the workingman into a knowledge of the necessity of a civic body, but now we need go no farther than the Reed avenue bridge or the Pricedale or Webster road to prove that the Board of Trade has been a source of great aid in helping the working man and making Monessen a better place in which to live.

As a word of proof of this, we illustrate by actual count. In thirty minutes yesterday afternoon, two hundred automobiles passed a given spot on the Monessen-Webster brick road. Many of these cars were pleasure cars carrying passengers to and from Monessen and Donora and other towns, but there were also several jitneys loaded with passengers. This road has provided a means of travel for hundreds of people daily going to and from work to the different mines and factories.

To establish this highway as a reality, was a tremendous undertaking and took more than two years' effort on the part of the Board of Trade. It also meant considerable expense which was borne by the treasury of the organization out of funds contributed by willing citizens. The road is a monument to the efforts of willing citizens who have resolved to make this town a better place in which to live with the passing of each year, and the Board of Trade ought to receive the moral if not the personal and financial support of every citizen of the town. Now will you boost, or do you want to still be a knocker?

Two Accidents

Last night about 11:45 an accident that might have been a serious one happened on the river road leading to Webster. The large touring car of Axel Stimmel of Speers, which was being driven by Elmer Larson struck the Ford Jitney of Harry Christner and it is said the small car was hurled several feet and was badly wrecked. One passenger in the Stimmell car is said to have had his head badly cut. It is understood the big car was traveling at a rapid rate of speed when the accident happened.

While driving along the brick road leading to Webster, the car of John Helen met with an accident and went over the bank. Mr. and Mrs. Helen leaped out in time to save themselves from being injured. The car was badly wrecked.

Tomorrow Last Day

Only one day remains for candidates to file their petitions with the county commissioner and get in the "swim" at the September primaries. The last day that candidates can file petitions to have their name placed on the election ballot is Tuesday, August 31. This applies to all candidates for county, township or borough offices.

There are now about 400 petitions on file from candidates in this county. Several hundred more will come in the last hour rush.

Every borough in the county will elect one or more Justices of the Peace, school director and councilman. There is no lack of aspirants for the jobs in any section.

Young Men Sentenced To Reform School

Charles Heims and Thomas Miller, of New Kensington, were before the court at Greensburg charged with the larceny of a Ford automobile. Judge McConnell stated that the charge should have been petty larceny, and fined the boys $1 and sent them to the county jail for 60 days.

Albert Wilt, charged with aggravated assault and battery was fined $1.00, the costs and sent to the workhouse for three months. Dick Welsh and Tom McKee, Monessen boys, charged with sodomy, were arraigned before Judge McConnell. The boys, aged 19 and 22 respectively, were sent to the Huntingdon Reformatory.

Tom Conway, a cripple from Monessen, charged with aggravated assault and battery, was sent to the county jail for a period of three months and ordered to pay a $1 fine and costs.

John Walters, charged with assault and battery with intent by Myrtle Freeman of Monessen, had his case nol prossed.

Watts Announces

—F. L. Watts has announced that he is a candidate for constable in the Second ward. Mr. Watts held this office in the First ward several years and was active in the service and fearless in the discharge of his duties.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

September 6th is the last day to pay borough, county, state and dog tax to save 5% penalty.

M Meyer's Remains Sent To Philadelphia

The remains of Meyer Meyers were shipped to Philadelphia yesterday afternoon over the Pennsylvania lines where interment will take place today. Services were held at the late home on Donner avenue yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. They were attended by hundreds of sorrowing friends who honored and respected the beloved citizen. The Masonic body, of which Mr. Meyers was almost a life long member, turned out strong to pay a last tribute to the departed brother. The lodge led the funeral corps from the home to the station at Lock 4. Mr. Meyers was a consistent member of this fraternity, believing in and adhering to its principles and teachings throughout his life and it was a fine compliment to the life and spirit of the man that so many of his companions were present yesterday afternoon to pay a last farewell and offer a silent expression of their brotherly devotion.

With the death of Mr. Meyers this community loses one of its most interesting and conspicuous figures His life is linked with the early development of the town, for he established one of the first as well as one of the most successful business enterprises in the town. He was one of the few business men who linked the period of Monessen's commercial awakening with the present and who never lost an opportunity to assist in the town's advancement intellectually and commercially.

Like many men who have contributed to the wealth and greatness of this country, Meyer Meyers came across the water. He was born in Bavaria, Germany, in 1844, and after coming to this country in 1861, he adopted it as his own and located a place of abode in Philadelphia where he went to work with the determination of the Anglo Saxon blood. Sturdy, honest and industrious, he was one of a type born to succeed. He chose as a life pursuit the mercantile profession and followed it in all of its vicissitudes and no one need prophesy that his pathway was strewn with flowers, but his ten children who survive are left with the comfort and blessings of a thrifty parentage and the words "Well Done" can be written on his epitaph.

In placing the name of Mr. Meyers on the roster of Monessen's dead, one more is added to an honorable roll made up of comrades whose memory this city will always delight to honor.

Floor Is Nearing Completion

Work is progressing on the Charleroi-Monessen bridge and it will be only a matter of a few months when the bridge floor will be completed and ready for traffic. Workmen of the Mercantile Bridge company started to tear up the old floor about six weeks ago, but owing to material not arriving nearly three weeks was lost.

Superintendent R. C. Callahan expects to have the first half of the bridge done within a day or two. That will be 1,000 feet of creosote blocks laid. The blocks are being laid under the supervision of David E. Olds of the United States Wood Preserving company in order to insure a proper guarantee of the work.

About forty tons of tar will be used in the operation of laying the blocks which are thoroughly soaked with tar after the heavy planks are tar washed and lined with tar paper. This is done to keep the wood preserved. The entire job is expected to be complete in six weeks.

The work has caused considerable inconvenience to street car patrons in making transfers, as well as one side of the bridge being closed to other traffic. The conveniences to autoists and others when the floor is made level and with a good driving surface will repay for all the inconvenience caused.

The cost of this improvement including painting the under structure will be about $40,000.

New Directory

The new issue of the Bell directory is being distributed to subscribers in Monessen. The directory contains forty-eight exchanges, with the names of all subscribers connected therewith.

This issue of the directory consists of 23,000 copies of which nearly 1100 will be distributed in Monessen.

Mr. Burwell, local manager for the compnay, calls attention to the advisability of consulting the new issue before making familiar calls as many subscribers have contracted for an improved class of service, resulting in changes of call number.

The Telephone company further urges the necessity of calling by number. The limits of memory and any change in the operating force make it impossible to render good service if connections are asked for by name.

It will be appreciated that the directory contains only those subscribers listed under the exchanges shown. For connection to other points ask the local chief operator.

A new feature of the directory which will be found very useful is the blank form on the second page of the cover, for the names and numbers of persons frequently called. If the subscribers will take a few minutes to write in the names and numbers of fifteen or twenty persons they call frequently, the time required in looking for numbers will be decreased to a minimum.

Many Prisoners In Police Court This Morning

Arguments over the war, pay day and too much booze seemed to be the main cause for so many men being arrested on Saturday and Sunday night for being drunk and disorderly.

John Chaber and Steve Mundo both of Webster, came to town Saturday night to see friends, and the friends treated them so royally that both men landed in jail before Sunday morning. This morning they were fined $3.00 and costs or $5.00 which they paid.

Steve Sattino of Donora, was fined $3.00 and costs or $5.00 for being drunk and disorderly. A friend paid the fine and Steve was released.

John Sauchinko, Mike Klebo and Jim Leckwenio met Saturday night at Twelfth and Schoonmaker avenue and proceeded to discuss the war question. They could not agree, however, on who was going to win and decided to fight it out and the winner of the fight would have his opinion respected. The police then appeared on the scene and informed the men that they were under arrest. This morning the burgess told them it would cost them $5.00 a piece for their little scrap, and if they wanted to fight to go to Europe, where they would pay them to fight. Each man paid his fine.

John Karon of 95 Ninth street, a boarding house boss, threw John Filipicheck, a boarder, down the stairs for coming into his room. He was fined $5.00 and costs or $7.00 for being so rough, which he paid.

Joe Northy of Carnegie, came to town Saturday in search of work. He imbibed too freely in tanglefoot, and could not tell how he happened to be behind the bars. The burgess discharged him with the promise that he would get out of town as soon as possible.

Andy Hurrivirinen of Daisytown, was charged with being drunk and was discharged when he promised to get out of town.

John Jacobson of Chestnut street, took on too big a load of booze on Saturday night and was ordered to go home by a policeman, but he said he could not find the road that led home and instead he went back to the saloon. He then purchased a supply of beer to last him over Sunday. The second time the policeman met him he told him to go home, but he was so happy that he did not care about going. This morning he was given a choice of paying a fine of $2.00 and costs or $5.00 or three days on the street. He begged to be allowed his freedom, promising to pay the fine next pay day and the burgess told him this was a strictly cash proposition. So for three days he will work with Frazier's gang on the street.

You're Fine Bill

It must be mighty satisfying to William Taft to discern the difference in the reception he receives and that accorded the Honorable Teddy. It was not long ago that Theodore was the door and Taft was the knob; that Teddy was the idol and Taft the clay foot; that T. R. was the procession and Bill was the corpse in the neat black box ahead. But the merry go round has swung, and Teddy now shouts to the empty auditorium; Teddy gesticulates alone and smites the azure without even a wren getting excited, while the Honorable William Taft is greeted with smiles and pride and even a modest enthusiasm

Here, we opine, is the difference. Mr. Taft is a lovable man, a great big citizen who shines best in the dark of private life. A man broad minded enough to give President Wilson due credit, and the backing that loyal Americans should give their chief executive.

We are slowly coming to get acquainted with William Taft, and we like him the more we know of him. The difference is that we regarded Roosevelt for what we thought he was going to do; we regard Bill Taft for the man himself We do like Taft; we admire his gameness, his big heartedness, his calm, his fairness to opponents, and his freedom from bitterness. We like a good loser, that rarest bird in all the political aviary. Bill, you got an awful trouncing and you have no sore spots left. We probably will never make you president again but you have our honest regard, and we like to hear what you have to say on national problems because often you are right, and you are always worth hearing. It takes a real big man to be sweet and cheery and kind and loyal after being walloped as Herr Taft was the last campaign, and we wot not of another prominent statesman or politician who so eagerly offers the best that is in him for the benefit of the nation when he is treading those simple, quiet by-paths the electorate have sidetracked him into. You are a sure enough American citizen, Bill Taft.

Keep Cool and Be Ready

We don't think the Arabic incident will result seriously. True, real Americans detest the style of fighting which hits a man when his hands are down, but we don't believe public opinion on this latest exploit of the little Von Tirpitz group of German war makers will be an expression of that feeling rather than an expression of beligerency.

American people who read and think realize by this time that the great mass of fine German people are not to blame for war on innocents. It is probable that less than 100 people in Germany are responsible for war acts of the Arabic kind. We are out of this senseless, unthinking, barbarous conflict, and in the calm atmosphere in which we find ourselves we should remember that any strong retaliation by us would fall on the much harassed, but guiltless German people, not on anyone of the hundred aristocrats who send out submarines on such savage and profitless missions.

The time has not yet arrived for Americans to get excited. Keep cool. We haven't any business at all in this war. Our business is to keep out of it; let the returning prosperity have a clear road, make anything and everything any foreign country wants to buy, Germany included, and prepare adequately for "the day" when some military mad government decides to attack us. Keep cool and get some powder ready.

Sporting Notes

Not only are the two major leagues buntings still in doubt, but the Federals are running a hot race, and the Pacific Coast League is in the throes of baseball excitement to decide the winner.

Miss Detroit is the boat picked by the wiseacres to make a clean sweep of the American free-for-all powerboat championships, which begin today at Chicago. The boat was built by popular subscription.

Golf interest centers in the amateur championship, which starts its qualifying round at Detroit today. A clever field is threatening to upset the Big Three, Quimet, Travors and Evans.

Nassau Tires Lead

It was a very noticeable fact that nearly all the cars in Friday's races at Belle Vernon were equipped with the Nassau tires. The drivers state that the toughness of the tread on this casing is remarkable and that they feel absolutely safe when driving cars equipped with this make of tires. Considering that every prize was won on Nassau tires, it seems that the makers of this product are also deserving of most honorable mention.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WOMEN'S VOTE MAY ELECT OUR NEXT PRESIDENT

Western Voters Say No Eastern Candidate Who Opposes Saffrage Can Expect to Get Their Vote

Harrisburg, Aug 23—A brief but vivid analysis of the political power which 4,000,000 women of this country already possess, and the effect which it will have on next year's presidential election, was given out at the State Headquarters of the Pennsylvania Suffragists here to-day by Miss Hannah J. Patterson, State Chairman of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Party.

Two interesting and significant points are emphasized in Miss Patterson's statement:

(1) That the 12 States in which women now vote control 91 of the 266 Electoral College votes necessary for a choice in determining who is to be President of the United States in 1917.

(2) That no candidate for President can expect to gain the 91 votes controlled by the Suffrage States unless he stands unqualifiedly for woman suffrage.

In presenting her statement and analysis of the nation-wide power of the women voters in the twelve suffrage States, Miss Patterson explained that it had been prepared in response to repeated requests from the West as to whether the men of the East really appreciated the voting strength of the Western women in national elections.

Woman's Vote Increases.

"Almost every day," she said, "we receive letters from Western suffragists, both men and women, asking us if our menfolk understand that six additional States—Arizona, Kansas, Oregon, Illinois, Montana, and Nevada—have granted their women the right to vote for the President of the United States since the 1912 election. None of these women had the right to vote at the last presidential election and only 37 electoral votes were cast in which women had a voice. But the women of the six aforementioned States will vote next year, bringing the total electoral vote of the suffrage States up to 91, or a little more than one-third of the Electoral College vote which the successful candidate must poll

"We agree with the Western suffragists that these figures are important and worthy of study and discussion by every thinking citizen We feel that they should be of especial interest to the voters of Pennsylvania, who are to decide this November whether their women are to have a voice in deciding what presidential candidate is to receive Pennsylvania's 38 electoral votes next year

"It does not seem fair to us that the women of this State should be denied the right to share in the election of the next President, when 4,000,000 other women, from California to Illinois, will have the power to vote against a candidate that we possibly might favor, providing, of course, that he believed in equal suffrage

"We want to bring these facts home to the men of Pennsylvania But to bring facts home forcibly, one must be specific. With the lively interest that is already being shown in the coming presidential campaign, we know of no better way of being specific than to show in concrete form just what power can be and will be exercised by the women of the West in determining who is to be our next President."

Miss Patterson then submitted the table of Electoral College statistics that accompanies this story

Western Voters Watching.

"As the table indicates," she said, "the States where women vote control among them 91 electoral votes, or more than New York and Pennsylvania combined Western voters are watching these two Eastern States this year and if, by any chance, the suffrage amendments should be defeated in the Empire and Keystone States, no candidate from either of these States need expect to gain the 91 electoral votes which the suffrage States control

"This is simply a plain statement of fact based upon the preparations which the voting suffragists of the West are making for the 1916 presidential campaign The women have learned the power of the ballot and the vote which they will turn out in next year's presidential election will be as big a surprise to some folks as their vote in Chicago was in the mayoralty campaign this year, when more than a quarter of a million women voted and incidentally gave Chicago the cleanest and most intelligent city council ever elected.

Have Faith in Men.

"Meanwhile, we are confident that the men of Pennsylvania will prove to the satisfaction of the Western voters that they are just as patriotic to-day as their forefathers were when they signed the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia, and that the same spirit of Patriotism which prompted them to make Pennsylvania the birthplace of Liberty in this country will inspire an overwhelming vote for the suffrage amendment here this November"

At Least 4,000,000 Women, With Voice in 91 Electoral Votes, Can Vote for Next President

Electoral Vote of Suffrage States in 1912		Electoral Vote in Suffrage States Now
Wyoming	3	Wyoming	3
Colorado	6	Colorado	6
Idaho	4	Idaho	4
Utah	4	Utah	4
Washington	7	Weshington	7
California	13	California	13
		Arizona	3
		Kansas	10
		Oregon	5
		Illinois	29
		Montana	4
		Nevada	3
Total . . .	37	Total . . .	91

The next President of the United States must secure at least 266 Electoral votes.

The States in which women now vote control 91 Electoral votes, or more than a third of the number necessary for a choice.

If I stooped over, the pain caught me and I could hardly straighten. I often got so dizzy that I had to sit down. My head ached and my eyes were affected. I felt tired and languid all the time. I tried everything but didn't improve until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. The second box drove away the trouble. Occasionally I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills when I work hard or catch cold. They never fail to help me."

Star Theatre

The Star theatre will present another of the great William Fox attractions today—"From the Valley of the Missing." This picture is one of the very best, it contains 500 beautiful scenes and 1,000 people are in the cast. The production of this picture cost $100,000. The cast includes some of the best William Fox players and was brought here at a great expense to the management. Folowing is a synopsis of the play:

Harold Brimbecomb's yacht, speeding up the Hudson, stops short with a grinding sound. Out of the fog looms the outline of a big barge. The yacht grazes the bulk. Mrs. Brimecomb rushes to a porthole. The porthole faces a window of the barge. Mrs. Brimecomb finds suddenly thrust into her stateroom from the barge, the tiny form of an infant. A woman's voice from the barge wails: "Take him, lady, and take good care of him. His pop's nigh killed him."

She takes him, then starts the interesting story wrapped around this striking incident. The story will be told on the screen at the Star theatre Monday afternoon and evening. 1t

FATE OF TOOTHBRUSH IS IN BALANCE

San Francisco, Aug. 30—Whether the toothbrush shall be discarded as unhygienic and a menace to the well being of the user is one of the important issues to be decided at the Panama-Pacific Dental Congress which opened today at the Exposition. Ten days of discussion, clinics and holiday-making are on the program. The toothbrush is on the carpet as a suspect in the spreading of disease germs. Its fate will not be lightly discussed, for some of the foremost authorities from all quarters of the globe on oral hygiene, bacteriology, propylaxis and kindred subjects will present their views of the modern toothbrush.

The indictment against the toothbrush was brought by a New Jersey physician, who accused the toothbrush of being little higher in the hygienic scale than the broom of the street sweeper.

Sixteen foreign countries and all the states in the union are represented in the gathering of dental experts. In their honor, the Exposition has named next Monday as "Dental Congress Day" at the Fair.

A Resident Known to all our Readers Relates an Experience

Readers of the Independent have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proven kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. The experiences told are not those of unknown persons, living far away. The cases are Monessen cases, told by Monessen people.

Mrs. R. Gilmore, 102½ First street, Monessen, says: "I suffered for years from a lame back and often when I stooped, the misery was so intense that I cried aloud. If I moved suddenly, it seemed as if something snapped in my back. When I exerted myself in sweeping or doing housework, the pain was unbearable. I felt tired and listless all the time and my head ached. My eyes were affected and I was all worn out. I consulted several doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, and finally I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. A few boxes made me quite well. Others of the family used Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney tonic and think highly of them."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy- get Doan's Kidney Pills the same that Mrs. Gilmore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
